DISPUTE

- a) The Defendant disputes any liability to the Claimant. The Claimant did not meet the terms of its engagement or obligations and is not entitled to any remuneration.
- b) The Claimant voluntarily terminated its relationship with the Defendant, and gave up all claims against the Defendant.
- c) Further, the Claimant misused confidential information, acted against the best interests of the Defendant and failed to deliver as promised.
- d) The Defendant has suffered damages as a result, which if the Claimant had a valid claim, which it does not, must be set off from that claim.
- e) If the Claimant had a valid claim, which is denied, it has not mitigated such.

AGREEMENT WITH THE CLAIM

The Defendant does not agree with the claim.

COUNTERCLAIM

- a) The Claimant did not act in best interests of the Defendant or its Shareholders. The Claimant failed to meet its obligations to the Defendant. The Defendant misused confidential information.
- b) As a result, the Defendant has suffered loss and damage.
- c) The Defendant also seeks punitive and exemplary damages.
- d) The amount of the Defendant's Counterclaim is not quantified at this time.
